

From Comfort to Healing: Our 360° Care Continuum

Expert in wound care and comfort management | Throughout Canada

Leika is a Quebec-based company specializing in medical equipment that operates throughout the care continuum. It offers innovative products for pressure injury treatment and pain relief, combining clinical expertise with personalized support. Leika also offers the Leika comfort surface range as part of its care continuum approach, adapted to institutional needs.

The Leika Difference

- Human-centred approach
- Hybrid distributor-designer model focused on innovation
- Specialized clinical expertise
- 24/7 service, 365 days a year
- Rapid intervention
- Superior quality, rigorously selected products
- Repair and maintenance plan: fleet and logistics management
- Acquisition options: purchase, rental, loan, maintenance and repair plan
- GST and provincial tax exempt, eligible for federal and provincial tax credits on prescription
- Canadian company

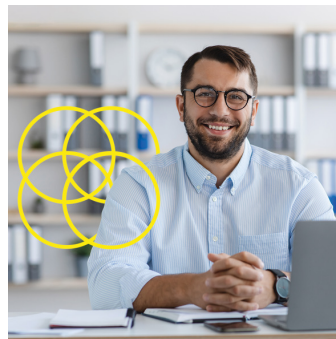

You're shaping the future of healthcare with us

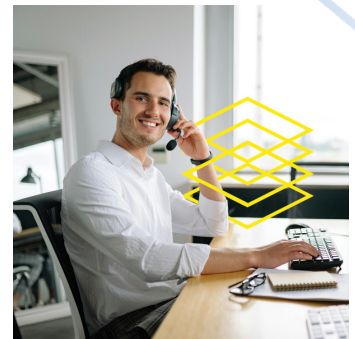

Care Manager

Occupational Therapist

Procurement Director

Biomedical Technician
(or Engineer)

Leika Medical Equipment

We are the reference at the heart of the care continuum

Experts in wound care, we support our clients and care staff at every stage – from home maintenance to curative care. Through a complete range of therapeutic surfaces, from comfort mattresses to specialized medical solutions, negative pressure therapy, and wound care products.